

Mrs. Nancy Cooper was raised, and continues to live, in North Georgia. She grew up in a loving family who valued education and hard work. Mrs. Cooper is married to Marty Cooper and has two adult children, Brittne McKinney who is married to her son in law, Josh McKinney and Kevin Cooper who is married to her daughter in law, Liz. Her Children have given her four precious grandchildren, Cooper, Bodhi, Arizona, and Desi who call her Nanny.

Mrs. Cooper graduated from Lakeview Fort Oglethorpe High School. She received her bachelor's Degree from University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. She continued her education at the University of West Georgia, receiving a Master's Degree in School Counseling. After several years teaching in the classroom and then serving as an Elementary School Counselor, she furthered her education at Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tennessee, graduating with an Educational Specialist degree in School Leadership.

Mrs. Cooper played several sports while in school. Basketball was her first love, with softball as a close second. She also ran track and played tennis. Today, pickleball, crocheting/knitting, and reading are things she enjoys doing in her free time. She also loves to travel with her husband and family, and looks forward to doing that more in future years.

Mrs. Cooper taught 4th, 5th, and 6th grade, was a school counselor, and has been a school administrator for thirteen years. She has been the Lower School Principal at Grace Baptist Academy since 2013. She feels honored to work in a school where God's word is the foundation of all that we do.
